	King Charles writes 27 March Anno	22

Of the length and shortning of the dayes.

The 3 divers motions of the Sun, be the cause why the day doth not lengthen, and shorten, at all times alike: And the vulgar sort be much deceived, saying, that the dayes do lengthen and shorten an houre every 15 dayes (which is not true) indeed from the 11 of March unto the 17 of Aprill that proportion is true; but then from the 27 of Aprill, it must be the 15 day of May (which is 20 dayes before the day be an houre longer) And from the 17 of May, at which time the day is 16 houres long in the latitude of 52 degrees and 30 minutes untill the 12 of June, which is 26 dayes: the day is longer but halfe an ho. and 3 min, and the like it doth in the shortning.

Conjectures of weather by the change, full, and quarters, of the moon.

When the moon doth either change, be at the full, or enter into her first, or last quarter, in Aries, Leo, or Sagitarius: in Winter it is comonly faire, but in summer hot, especially in June or July. If the change be at the full, or enter into her first or last quarter, in Taurus, Virgo, or Capricorn in winter it is like to be cold, but in summer temperate. When the said times she is in Libra, Gemini, or Aquarius, then looke for winde, especially in the Spring or Autume.

But if the moon be new, at the full, or come to the first or last quarter in Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces: in winter judge of moist and rainy weather; sometimes snow; but in summer good and temperate weather for the most part, yet sometimes it raineth, then especially when Venus is aspected with the moon.

Ianuary hath xxxj. dayes.

Cold Ianuary loves hot cloaths,
Warme broths, warme baths are best.
Blood-letting is unholsome,
Vse none but warme, fly rest.

Generall observations, and profitable to be regarded in Husbandry.

REmove and set young Trees from October until February, and setting alwayes that side towards the Sunne which it was before, the wind Southerly, or at West, the weather warme, dry, and in the new of the Moone.

Graft and Plant Trees the Moone in Taurus, Virgo, Capricorne, in faire dry weather, the wind South or West.

Cut Vines in December or January.

Fell Timber to continue and be without wormes, in December or January, two or three dayes before the Moone change. And to have it grow againe, in the new Moone best.

Cut Hedges betweene the change and full Moone, from the end of January, until May.

Shears Sheepe, cut Hedges, and sowe all manner of Corne in the new of the Moone.

Set and sowe all manner of Seeds, the Moone in Aries, Taurus, Cancer, Virgo, Libra, Capricorne, Aquarius, Pisces, but for Seeds, whose roots are round, they should be set or sowne three or foure dayes before the full of the Moone, or after the same.

Dung Land, that the Weeds may not abound in the last quarter.

Geld Carrell the Moone in Aries, Libra, or Sagittarius, after a full Moone, but you may let them blood at any time, the signe not being in the heart, nor in the place where the incision is made, nor in the day of the Moons change.

Gather Flowers or Seeds, such as you mind to keepe all the yeare at the full of the Moone, dry your Flowers in the shade till they be almost dry, and then runne them a little to prevent corruption, doe the like with your Seeds, for they will endure the heames of the Sun.

Gather Apples and Gardens in the last quarter of the Moone; lay every sort by it selfe, but no fallings among them upon hard boards, or upon a plaster-floore, until the end of November, the thinner they lye the better, and let the place be close shut in frosty cold weather, and cover them with straw or Mattes: Cherries will not be gathered, but Gardens so gathered, and laid upon dry boards, need not any covering.

Profitable Rules in Gardning.

IN the Southerne parts neere the Sea, Gardning may be more done then Northward, and in the middest of the Land in reference to cold.

In setting of hearbs, take no more roots then a handfull above ground, nor no more then a foot deep in the Earth, twine the roots you set if they will abide it, but Gilly-flowers are too tender.

Set most alwayes, and lower in dry weather.

Set Slips at any time, except about Midsommer, or in frostie weather.

Weeding loosens the most roots, by drawing the hearbs by the stalkes.

Gather for the Pot and Medicines greene, the last being in the top: but in winter the root is best.

All hearbs once in seven yeares mostly be renewed, except Rosemary.

These require whole Plots, Artichokes, Cabbages, Turnips, Parsnips, Onyons, Carrets, Skirrets, Beetroots, Kettle, and the like.

Gather all your seeds dead, ripe, and dry to the eye.

Lay no dung to the roots of your hearbs, for dung not rotted, is too hot even for trees also. Thin

Thin setting and sowing, so that the roots stand not above a foot distant is preferable to, the nearer will the better, and greater hearbs require a greater distance.

Set and sowe hearbs in the time of growth, except about Midsommer, for then they are tender, but trees in the time of their rest.

A good housewife may, and will gather store of hearbs for the pot about Lammas Day, and dry and pound them, which in winter will be her good service.

Weed your Gardens with weeding knives or fingers after a shower of raine, and let the weeders learne to know hearbs from weeds.

Husbandry to be observed in each moneth.

January.

Fœcundus Janus Calices ecfamore repensem
Poscit: & arcenda est corpore segnities.

IN January cut downe Timber, (and it shall not shrink nor be eaten with worms) in the last quarter of the Moone set or sow Cornels, Berries of bay-trees, Privet and Box. Set Quick-sets and Kales. Peaches, Filberds and Plums, if the frost be not too hard, remove trees, set Mounlet at Peare and Peares, two fruit-trees of superfluous branches. Lop trees and hedges, prune and geld Cattell for Beare fallow Land for wheat and Rye. Trench Gardens with dung. The best time to set, sowe, remove, prune, is before the full Moone. Dung land in the last quarter, remove Bees, and for your own health keep your body warm, let good and wholesome dyet be your Physician, and refrain Venus, exercise and labour, when salmes encrease appetite.

February.

Februs inequitur post frigida tempora Iani,
Ordine crescentes arget & ille dies.

NOw set and lay Quick-sets, set and plant Vines, and Osiers, and Rose-trees. Sowe Peale, Peares, and Vetches, Mustard-seed, plash hedges, call ditches, set

Hops, provide now for Summer sallets sowe Oats in cold stiffe lands: for your health take heed of cold, forbear meats that be slimy, and of a phlegmatick condition, and if need require, purge, bath or bleed.

March.

Languet hiems, redeunt violæ mare navita siccat,
Rusticus arva, quibus hordia deinde serat.

In the new of the Moone (the wind any part South or West) Peare, Peare, Garden, and Apple-trees, and sowe what you list, unlesse the last moneth, and cover the roots of your trees which you bared before with rank earth, after the full of the Moon. Sowe Beans, Peale, Oates, Onyons, Parsenips, Carrets, Cucumbers, all kind of Pot-herbs, Silias, Artichocks, and Sage. Geld Lambs, sowe Barley-land, let blood according to youth, strength, and necessitie, the signe and weather being fit. What diseases cannot now be cured, will be hardly cured the yeare after.

April.

Arboribus flores, dat pratis gramen Aprilis
Quid cessas teneras pascere Pastor oves?

In April sowe Barley, Pease, and Flax, and all kind of fruits left unsowne the last moneth: Dole Hops for Garden herbs. Open your Hives, and give Bees free liberty, leave to succour them with food, and let them labour for the living. Launce now provide them of Barbe, and good Housewives looke now to your Dairies. And now, by direction of a skilfull Physician, bleed and purge, and they that have Aches, or be troubled with the Gout, may goe to the Baths in this moneth, and in the moneth.

May.

Omnia nunc florent, nunc formosissimus annus.
Nil segeti duro frigiore pejus erit.

NOw set and sowe all manner of herbs and seeds, set Stilts at worke, take Lambs from their Dams, fit land for Wheat and Rye, leave lopping of Trees teach Boys to climbe, but rut off the ſuperfluous branches. Riſe early, and walke in the fragrant fields, and by ſweet running ſtreames. Sage and ſweet Butter is now an excellent break-faſt, clarified Whay, and Sage-Ale, and Mozme-wood, and Scurvie-graſſe, good drink in mornings.

teat

June.

Jam pecus & prata eſt tempus tondere, & in æſtu
Vel medio duræ commeminiſſe hiemis.

IN June cheare Sheepe, bring home full, weed Corne and Gardens, ſet Roſemary, Carnations, and Gilly-flowers, ſowe Lettice and Radiſh three or foure dayes after the full, to prevent running to ſeed: make Hay, carry Sand, Lime, Marle, and all manure what kind ſoever to your Land: cut neither Hedge nor Tree during theſe three moneths, beware of great thirſt: uſe light, thin, and coole dyet, much exerciſe, and chaſte thoughts.

July.

Sirius uritagros; nunc eſt calleſtiſſimus annus,
Cum Sol Herculei terga Leonis edit.

NOw apply your Hay-harveſt, for a day ſlacke may be the loſſe of many pounds, eſpecially the weather being unconſtant: Pull Hempe that is ripe, gather Garden-hearbs, Beanes, crop Rue and Mozme-wood, Bayes, Walnut-leaves, to kill fleas and Moths by hops: gather hearbs, and lay them ſpread in the ſhade untill they be almoſt dry, and then burne them a little for feare of corrupting. Ale moderate dyet, and beware of great thirſt, for nothing bringeth the Peſtilence ſooner, or peſtilent Diſeaſes, then thirſt, alſo fervent heats and cold taken ſuddenly upon them. Beware of Phyſick, bleed not but upon extraordinary occaſions.

Auguſt.

Meſſis adeſt, ſpicas gravidas & mitia poma
Jam lege, & huic pſalmos qui dedit iſta cane.

APply your Corne harveſt, ſowe Winter hearbs in the new of the Moone: gather Garden ſeeds, mowe

Barley and Oats, gather your Summer great Fruit as Peares and Apples, &c. And lastly, for your health, refraine from sleeping after meat in the day time; shun riot and excesse, and be ghastly alone.

September.

Fragibus hic poma adjungit, tu dum legis illa.
Dic, quàm me laute tractat amatque Deus?

IN this month, and the end of the former, when Hogs may be had, it is good to gather them; the weather being faire, and the dew on the ground: kill Bees, make Verjuice, sowe Wheat and Rye, put Swine to Mast, set and remove Slips of all sorts of Flowers that were the true Lady dayes, remove Trees every new Moone, from September until February, the weather being faire and warme, the wind South or West. Also be, so, healthy, all manner of wayes, forbeare fruites that are too pleasant or raisins, and as dearly shun rost and fasting.

October.

To super exculta committere Semina terræ
Tempore, quo possint fructificare suo.

IN October sowe Wheat and Rye, the sooner the better for feare of rotte; gather Winter fruit, the weather dry in the afternoon, and in the age of the Moone. Cut Hale trees, if you desire to have Haze of Hales once in two yeares. Bad for health, refuse not any seasonable physick as the basen of the learned: get warme clothing, and good diet; use all moderate sports, for it is good to revive the spirits.

November.

Glandes sues petebas, sub brumam dignaque requiris
Suavitur atque aliis vescitur anseribus.

THis is the best time to make Mault, to kill Hogs, to drench gathered with dung, to set Crab-tree stocks, Some Wheat and Rye in exceeding hot soyles, cut down Timber for Ploughs, Carts, and other implements for husbandry, use wholsome warme meates well spiced, drinke sweet wines, and for digestion, good moderate exercise.

December.

Bruma venit nimbosa jubens agere otia agrestes,
Atque his quæ reliqua parte labore frui.

IN this and the next moneth, cut downe Timber in the last quarter of the Moone, uncover the roots of fruit trees, set Beanes and Peale, cover all your bell flowers and heaths from frosts fury, and stormes, burn old rotten horse litter. Look well to Coneyes, take Fowles with nets and lime twigs, water and keepe moist your medowes. And to conclude, by prouidently care for your good nourishing meats, drinke good Wine and strong drinke, keepe thy body warme, and thy house warme, banish carking care from thy heart, visit thy poore neighbours, and rejoyce in God, that at this time sent his onely Son our Saviour, into the world to save us.

Of the fortunate and fatall yeares, dayes, &c.
too much observed by many.

THe Ancients of the Egyptians which were the wisest and best of the Astronomers in that time, have observed certaine yeares in a mans life to be very dangerous, and these they named Climacterical, or Starry yeares, Now, a Climacterical yeare is every seuenth yeare of mans life, the reason is, because then the course of the Planets returne to Saturne, who is commonly is an enemy to our good. And as the Moone, which is the nearest and the next Planet unto us, and swiftest of course of all other, passeth almost every fortnight into a contrary signe of the same qualitie from whence she came forth, and so by that meanes bringeth in the critigall dayes of Saturne, which is the Planet that is furthest from us, and slowest of course, for he tarrieth in one signe so many yeares as the Moone hath dayes, bringing in likewiſe theſe Climactericall yeares, it cauſeth ſundry mutations to follow; And hence it is, that in the ſeaventh yeare children doe caſt, and alſo renew their teeth.

The 49 yeare of mans life, compoſed of 7 times 7 dangerous, 56 yeare to men eſpecially borne in the night, 63 unto thoſe borne in the day time, by reaſon of the Trineſſe of Mercury and Venus, whereunto Octavius the Emperour ſeemes to conſent, where to this effect he writeth to his Nephew to rejoyce with him, having paſſed that deadly yeare, an enemy to old age 63, in which number the 7 and 9 doe concur as Hoſman to that purpoſe more largely in his booke, De diebus & annis Criticis, reciteth.

Now, for the criticall dayes in every moneth in the yeat, are January 1 and 7, February 1 and 4, March 1 and 4, April 1 and 10, May 3 and 7, June 10 and 15, July 10 and 13, Auguſt 1 and 2, alſo September 3 and 13, October 3 and 10, November 3 and 5, December 7 and 10. Others alſo obſerve, that day that Innocents day lighteth on, in all that yeare to begin any worke on, or take any enterpriſe in hand of conſequence, with a multitude of others preſages and predictions, as the falling of Salt towards or from any, the croſſing of a Hare, that is ill luck, becauſe they could not catch her; Crickets, Rats & Mice, to forſake the houſe, or to gnaw any cloths: as a man comming to Cato, to deſire him to tel him what great miſhap was like to befall him, for the Rats had torn & eaten his hoſe, truly neighbor ſaith Cato, if thy hoſe had eaten the Rat, dangerous things might have befallen thee, a wiſe anſwer to a frivolous queſtion.

A Table of Expences.

Expence.	By the day is	Weeke.	Moneth.	Yeere.

Many littles doe make a mickle, the proverb's old,
Be carefull therefore how thou ſpend'ſt thy ſilver coine and gold,
Leſt of a mickle thou leave but little, and waſte away thy ſtate,
Then warned be, and rul'd by me, had I wiſt doth come too late.

Generall Rules of Phyſick.

LEt not blood when the Moone is in the place where the Diameter is to be made, neither when the Sun or Moone are afflicted with the malignant Planets, Saturne or Mars; let it be done in the morning after Sunryſing and while the patient is faſting: If in the afternoone, then after perfect digeſtion, the Ayre being temperate.

In letting of blood, the Chyrurgion muſt be carefull of his patient, for many times the careleſs and unlearned, by letting of blood, openeth a way to many grievous infirmities, and oft to preſent death. Neither is it convenient that a leane or meane man or woman, or any one that is fat and groſſe, nor for a child under 14 yeares of age to be let blood: It is to be conſidered, how it ſtandeth with the patient in wardly for his complexion and age, for the time of the yeare and of the day.

Other Observations Physicall.

Take no physick in the Dog dayes, nor in the extreame heates of Summer, nor cold of Winter. Rise betimes in the morning especially in May and June, and walke the fields after the filling of the vapours with good drink or broths. Sup not too late at any time, it is better to eate with some intermission then much at once. It is a signe of good digestion to be cold presently after meat. Fly wrath, anger, envy, use mirth also moderately, travell lightly, dresse before you wash in the morning, and retaine not excrements too long. Fast not too long in the morning, keep your selfe in a pure Ayre. Sup not too late, and abandon the Ale-house. Walk not abroad in misty or foggy, nor hot drinks nor spices in Summer, take heed of raw fruit in Autumne. All Surfeits and ill Ayre and Diet do breed the Plague. In the time of Plague eate Garlike, Rue, and sweet Butter, ayring your houses and clothes with Frankincense. Eate not too much sower meats, vinegar nor salt, it maketh the bones and sinews weake & sore. Let drink & bread be neither too new nor too old. Keep head, neck, & feet warm and dry in Winter. In all things observe a moderation or measure, for therein consisteth health and vertue.
